To celebrate Valentine's Day in all its sentimental glory, our February box features fun and flirty kiss prints in assorted shades. A kiss can express various sentiments like love, friendship, passion, forgiveness and affection amongst us. Although there is no historical recording of who gave the first ever kiss, one thing most of us can agree on is a kiss has come to play a huge and significant role in culture and how we interact with one another.

Valentine's Day is not just a celebration between sweethearts, it's also a great time to show the various loves in our lives just how much we care: a dear relative, a supportive friend, a caring work colleague: they all deserve kisses too!

Air Kiss, French Kiss, Peck, Cheek Kiss...whichever kiss you decide to give this February, let the GLOSSYBOX Candy Valentine box inspire you to pucker up and give sweet kisses to all who have a place in your heart.
